Power of Service Mini-Unit

Introduction

Introduce the unit by stating that the week will be spent studying critical components of serving the needs of others. While happiness is a fleeting emotion that comes and goes, you are likely to experience it more often if you live a life dedicated to serving the needs of others. It is in giving that we receive.

Pre-Unit

While happiness is a fleeting emotion that comes and goes, you are likely to experience it more often if you live a life dedicated to serving the needs of others. It is in giving that we receive. Highlight the order of the mini-unit:

Monday- Self-Reflection Practice

Tuesday- “One Day” project. Evaluating the impact of small acts of kindness

Wednesday- Real life examples of service while practicing important ELA comprehension strategies

Thursday- Community Outreach Project- For this, I had students write letters of encouragement to the hospital staff that are dedicating their time at the emergency COVID-19 facility in West Allis, Wisconsin. You can certainly change this to fit your needs.
